Policy Research Intern – PACER Project

About the Organization
Research for Action (RFA) seeks to use research as the basis for the improvement of educational opportunities and outcomes for traditionally underserved students. Our work is designed to strengthen public schools and postsecondary institutions; provide research-based recommendations to policymakers, practitioners and the public at the local, state and national levels; and enrich the civic and community dialogue about public education.

Location of the Internship*
This is an on-site internship position at RFA’s headquarters, at 100 South Broad Street, Suite 700, Philadelphia, PA 19110. In case RFA’s offices remain closed, this internship may be offered remotely. To be considered for remote internship, interns must meet tech requirements described in Other Requirements section below.

Project Description
The Pennsylvania Clearinghouse for Education Research—or PACER—is designed to inform state education policy discussions through rigorous, objective research; regular policy briefs; and research-based commentaries in leading media outlets statewide. The Allegheny County Education Research (ACER) project provides robust, timely, and actionable independent research and analysis to inform educational policy and practice in Allegheny County public schools.

Intern Role
RFA is currently seeking a Policy Research Intern to support project staff in conducting research activities in support of upcoming PACER and ACER policy briefs.
